

Group for Research in Organisational Evolution (GROE)

Second International Workshop

20-21 September 2013

Hitchin Priory, Hitchin, UK

Poster Presentations Programme

Poster Session 1: 14.15 – 15.00 on 20 September

Ayça Akarçay-Gürbüz (Galatasaray University, Turkey)

‘Political Economy of Turkey’

Vladimir Cvijanović (University of Zagreb, Croatia)

‘How Helpful are Current Institutional Approaches when Analysing European Semi-Peripheral Capitalism’

Manuel Muriel (University of Seville, Spain)

‘Institutional Foundations of Heritage Railways. The High Cost of Low Trust in the Preservation of Public Goods’

Sylvia Sztern (Lund University, Sweden and The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel)

‘Railroads as Harbingers of Individual Landholding in Stolypin Reform Russia’

Poster Session 2: 15:30 – 16:15 on 20 September

Antony Drew (University of Newcastle, Australia)

‘Why Genes, Culture and Institutions Matter for International Business Research’

Franz Gatzweiler (University of Bonn, Germany)

‘Incompleteness, Diversity and Institutional Change in Environmental Valuation’

Guinevere Nell (independent researcher & Marginal Revolution University, online)

‘Democratic Process Theory: Toward an Austrian Evolutionary Public Choice Model’

Ilhan Can Özen (Middle East Technical University, Turkey)

'How Important is Knowledge Accumulating in the Information Age? The Continuing Importance of the Market / Firm Dichotomy in the New Economy'

Enrico Rossi (London School of Economics, UK)

'Opportunism, Opportunity Costs and Product Differentiation: Endogenous Market Structure and the Boundaries of the Firm'